

The ADAMC comprises 22 counties that will focus on supporting and growing the capabilities of the defense industrial base (DIB) in Alabama. This geographic area captures the majority of aerospace and defense manufacturing, defense installations, and associated industries that can leverage the resources of the ADAMC.